

The United Nations and Time for Equality present

SOLD

The screening will be introduced by film director JEFFREY D. BROWN and followed by an interactive panel discussion moderated by ROSA BRIGNONE and KAREN WAUTERS, Time For Equality.

JEFFREY D. BROWN

Film Director Jeffrey D. Brown is an Academy, Emmy and Peabody Award winner. He studied film at Tisch School of the Arts at NYU. SOLD is his directorial feature film debut.

“– I felt called to tell this story on film. I saw it visually as I read it and I responded to the urgency of the issue and the pain this girl felt. I also knew that by telling Lakshmi’s story, we would give voice to the millions of invisible children trafficked every year all over the world.”

With SOLD, Jeffrey wants to make a difference in the lives of the many survivors and has launched global outreach programs for prevention through education, the healing and vocational training of survivors

IRENE WINTERMAYR

International
Labour
Organization

Slavery and exploitation of human beings have no place in 21st century. Yet 21 million women, men and children are trapped in slavery, three out of every 1,000 people worldwide. 4.5 million are victims of sexual exploitation. Slavery is closer than you think; although illegal in every country, it persists in every corner of the world, including the most advanced democracies. Modern slavery generates annual illegal profits of over US$ 150 billion - the most lucrative and fastest growing criminal activity after weapons and drugs. 90% of victims are exploited in the private economy, 44% of victims have migrated internally or across borders, and 95% of victims experience some form of violence.

What can you do?

Support a global alliance against modern slavery

- 50 for Freedom The campaign aims to persuade at least 50 countries to ratify the ILO's Forced Labour Protocol by 2018. The Protocol is a legally binding treaty that will require governments to take new measures tackling modern slavery in all its forms. It works on three main levels: protection, prevention and access to justice. So far 17 countries have ratified the Protocol. This is your chance to help end slavery once and for all. Sign up now and call on world leaders to ratify the Forced Labour Protocol: www.50forfreedom.org #50FF
- Alliance 8.7 The UN Sustainable Development Goal Target 8.7 which includes "...by 2025 end child labour in all its forms" - is ambitious. No government, country or organization can solve this challenge alone "Alliance 8.7" is a multi-stakeholder platform which has four goals; accelerating timelines, conducting research and sharing knowledge, driving innovation, increasing and leveraging resources.
- SOLDtheMovie A global campaign to end the exploitation of children <https://www.soldthemovie.com/take-action/>

Get involved in your local community

- Luxembourg for Freedom is a community-based campaign initiated by Time for Equality to support ILO's 50ForFreedom movement. The campaign was launched on the occasion of Diversity Day Letzebuerg 2017. The benefits of diversity will come from all sectors of society working together to build a sustainable inclusive society, through respect of human rights, dignity and freedom. We asking from all members of our community to get involved by signing up and ask the Luxembourg government to ratify ILO's Protocol on Forced Labour #LuxembourgforFreedom
- Responsible Citizens Pledge Commit to respect the 7 rules to protect children created by the ECPAT Youth Group.

Increase your awareness

- CCDH Report Read the highlights and recommendations of the national rapporteur on human trafficking in Luxembourg, the Commission Consultative des Droits de l'Homme (CCDH). In its first report, published in March 2017 and covering the period 2014-2016, CCDH highlights the need for awareness raising, resources and power for proactive identification, rigorous detection procedures, improved reporting ccdh.public.lu
- Luxembourg websites Visit www.stoptraite.lu, www.childprotection.lu, "Don't Look Away" campaign www.ecpat.lu/nos-actualites/je-vois-je-reagis which are among a few
- TimeForEquality Visit our website for regular follow up and current information www.timeforequality.org #LearnShareTakeAction

Raise Visibility

- Molly Gochman's artwork, Red Sand Project, asks you to take the time to fill a sidewalk crack with red sand and then share your sidewalk transformation on social media using #RedSandProject. Small actions can help raise awareness of the issues facing those who are overlooked. We should not merely walk over the most marginalized people in our communities — those who fall through the metaphoric cracks. Fill a sidewalk crack tonight with the red sand you will receive at the event and document your sidewalk transformation on social media using;
