

EXPRESSIONS OF HUMANITY

What kind of world do we want to live in?

Larissa Rukhsheller

Humanity and the power of arts and stories
to reach people and achieve real change.
this is the red thread of the cycle

Expressions of Humanity

The cycle will touch upon important human rights questions of our time: migration, refugees, endemic violence against women, marginalization of indigenous communities and the response of our society.

23 October 2018, 7 p.m.

The Journey of a Migrant Continued

12 February 2019, 7 p.m.

Empowering women in Guatemala – Maya cultural heritage and the art of weaving

20 March 2019, 7 p.m.

La juge – Une femme dans la magistrature

26 June 2019, 7 p.m.

Facing the truth – Canada's Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

Learn, Share, Take Action

Tickets and further details: www.rotondes.lu /
www.timeforequality.org info@timeforequality.org

ŒUVRE
Nationale de Secours
Grande-Duchesse Charlotte

ROTONDES:
EXPLORATIONS CULTURELLES